

CHARM Seminar

Centre for Habilitation and Rehabilitation Research & Models

Date Wednesday, August 30, 2017

Place: Room 101, Stjerneblokken, Nedre Ullevål 9, Oslo, Norway

Programme

Juan Lu (Guest professor at CHARM and Professor at the Department of Family Medicine and Population Health, Division of Epidemiology at the Virginia Commonwealth University) is visiting Oslo and you are invited to a workshop regarding the projects and funding applications in the new CHARM.

09:15 -09:30	Introduction
09:30 -10:00	New CHARM - Organization, administrative & scientific goals and projects plans
10:00 -10:15	Break
10:15 -12:00	Applications; in preparation, submitted or accepted with CHARM collaboration - Psycho-educational intervention for healthcare professionals working with Huntingtons patients. (Marleen) (15 min) - Evaluation and development of the User project (Per and Cecilie) (15 min) - Health indicators and physical activity in individuals with intellectual disabilities services. (Audny) (15 min) - Equality, content, and effects of treatments offered in the Norwegian Neck and Back Units. A registry-based randomized multicenter study based on the Norwegian Neck and Back Registry (Cecilie & Audny) - focus on part 3, collaboration with NAV. (15 min) - Center TBI – care, rehabilitation and services delivery perspectives. (Nada) (15 min) - COST network application. (Nada) (15min) - Psychosocial support following stroke - the application of telehealth to reach out to patients and their families. (Marit) (15 min)
12:00 -13:00	Lunch
13:00 -15:00	Interactive workshop regarding planning of publications and new applications based on the submitted and accepted applications