

Figure 5.5 Survival curves for time between first and second child birth on a logarithmic scale. The blue line indicates that the first child survived. The green line is that of women who lost their first child. (Based on data from the Medical Birth Registry of Norway.)